

All paid and unpaid staff, including volunteers or contractors of DISCO are responsible for the safety and wellbeing of children and young people who engage with DISCO. All paid and unpaid staff & contractors are expected to act in accordance with this Code of Conduct in their physical and online interactions with children and young people under the age of 18 years.

I will:

- Act in accordance with DISCO's child safety and wellbeing policies and procedures at all times.
- Behave respectfully, courteously and ethically towards children and their families and towards other staff.
- Listen and respond to the views and concerns of children, particularly if they communicate (verbally or non-verbally) that they do not feel safe or well.
- Promote the human rights, safety and wellbeing of all children at DISCO at all times.
- Demonstrate appropriate personal and professional boundaries.
- Consider and respect the diverse backgrounds and needs of children.
- Create an environment that promotes and enables children's participation and is welcoming, culturally safe and inclusive for all children and their families.
- Involve children in making decisions about activities, policies and processes that concern them wherever possible.
- Contribute, where appropriate, to DISCO's policies, discussions, learning and reviews about child safety and wellbeing.
- Identify and mitigate risks to children's safety and wellbeing as required by DISCO's risk assessment and management policy or process.
- Respond to any concerns or complaints of child harm or abuse promptly and in line with DISCO's policy and procedure for receiving and responding to complaints.
- Report all suspected or disclosed child harm or abuse as required by the Queensland Child Protection Act 1999 and by DISCO's policy and procedure on internal and external reporting.
- Comply with DISCO's policy and protocols on communicating with children.
- Comply with legislative and DISCO's policies and procedures on record keeping and information sharing.
